This Week's Readings: God the Father loved the world so much that he was willing to give up his only Son for us. Let us gather around him today as the people of God in response to such generosity.

First Reading 1 Kings 17:10-16 Elijah invites the widow to provide for others even from her very limited means.

Second Reading Hebrews 9:24-28 Christ is himself both priest and victim; he offers himself once for all.

Gospel Mark 12:38-44 The generosity of the widow is contrasted with the selfishness of the scribes or lawyers.

Message from Fr. Peter: This weekend we are honoured to make our Act of Remembrance: Deacon David will be representing us at the Cenotaph in Lytham and on Monday at 11am there is a service in St. Peter's School, to which all are invited.

The Act of Remembrance.

Fr. Peter: We gather together in the presence of God. We commit ourselves to work in penitence and faith for reconciliation between the nations, that all people may, together, live in freedom, justice, and peace. We pray for all who in bereavement, disability, and peace, continue to suffer the consequences of fighting and terror. We remember with thanksgiving and sorrow those who died in world wars and conflicts past and present, whose lives have been given and taken away,

Speaker: They shall grow not old, As we that are left grow old;

Age shall not weary them, Nor the years condemn.

At the going down of the sun and in the morning, We will remember them. We will remember them.

Here follows The Silence, concluding with The Last Post.

Fr. Peter: Ever-loving God, we remember those whom you have gathered from the storms of the wars of this world into the peace of your presence; may that same peace calm our fears, bring justice to all peoples, and establish harmony among the nations, through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

PLEASE NOTE the Diocese is changing all email addresses. The one email for our two parishes is now sjsp.lsa@lrcd.org.uk Please do whatever you have to do to use this email from now on. Cheers.

November at St. Joseph's and Peter's

Bereavement Sunday: 17th November. All those who have died in the year will be remembered at All Weekend Masses.

Christ the King: 24th November: Blessing of the New Lectionary at all Masses.

Evening Prayer and Benediction for the Beginning of the Centenary of the Diocese: St. Joseph's at 6pm

Mass for the Deceased Clergy of the Deanery: all are welcome for this Deanery mass this Tuesday 12th at 10am at St. Joseph's. There will be a cup of tea in the hall afterwards.

Christmas Light Switch On: St Joseph's and St Peter's choirs, along with the Ukulele Orchestra, have been asked to start off the entertainment for the Christmas Light Switch On at 2pm on 16th November at the Cenotaph in Lytham. It would be fantastic if we could have lots of members of the parishes singing with us – Christmas carols and songs that you all know! Please join us for a practice in St Joseph's Parish Hall at 7pm on Friday 15th November – followed by drinks in the presbytery. It would be great if our two parishes could support by singing along and handing out song sheets (and Christmas Mass Time Cards. FrP).

November List: please write the names of your loved ones who have gone before us on the papers at the back of Church and place in the Box on the Sanctuary to have these names remembered in our masses throughout this month of the Holy Souls.

Deanery Forty Hours of Watching In Preparation for the Centenary of the Diocese of Lancaster: Exposition of the Blessed Sacrament:: This Week November 10th Our Lady Star of the Sea; Next Weekend November 17th St. Joseph's Ansdell.

Diocesan Centenary Prayer: God our Father, we thank you for all the graces and blessings You have bestowed on our Diocese since its foundation one hundred years ago on ground made fertile by the blood of the martyrs. Nourished by your Son, Jesus Christ, in Word and Sacraments, and led by your Holy Spirit, may we move forward with hope and trust, helping future generations to discover the 'pearl of great price' which will bring them eternal life. And when time shall be no more, may our Diocese rejoice as the 'mother of countless children' and be given her place in heavenly glory. This we ask of you who live and reign for ever and ever. Amen. This prayer is to be prayed every day for 100 days from the Feast of the Assumption. Prayer cards are available at the back of church.

Fylde Foodbank Write: we would like to say a huge thank you for all of the food and toiletries that you donate. This has amounted to 1303.90 kilograms which equates to 3104.5 meals with a value of £3,611:80. Thank you for all you do for the foodbank, we couldn't help all those need without you. Indeed! Many blessings to you all.

Terminally Ill Adults (End of Life) Bill: This latest attempt to legalise assisted suicide is to be debated and voted upon on 29 November and it is vital that MPs receive as many e mails/letters as possible opposing this bill. There are various simple tools on-line to facilitate contact with MPs – see www.spuc.org.uk/assistedsuicideuk and www.cbcew.org.uk for more information and to read the pastoral letter of Cardinal Nichols on this subject.

Christmas is Coming: we are blessed to continue the cherished Advent tradition we began three years ago, commemorating the holy journey of the figures of Joseph and Mary. Each year these figures travel from home to home, culminating in a joyous celebration for Mass on Christmas Eve. This beautiful tradition is known as "Posada," meaning "innkeeper," has brought countless blessings to our parishioners in the past. Thank you to everyone who has already signed up for this years pilgrimage journey!

Quiz Night|: Many thanks to everyone who organised and came along to the Great Quiz Night last week at SJs. £573:83 was raised our joint Parish funds. Huge thanks and well done to you all!
