This Sunday's Readings: We are called to follow God. This involves duties both towards God and towards all people. This also means that it is our duty to respect lawful earthly authorities.

First Reading: Isaiah 45:1.4-6 God chooses Cyrus, although a pagan, for the benefit of the people of Israel.

Second Reading: 1 Thessalonians 1:1-5 St Paul recalls how the gospel came to the Thessalonians not only as words but as power and the Holy Spirit.

Gospel: Matthew 22:15-21 The distinction between our duty to God on the one hand, and earthly rulers on the other, is clear and we should fulfil both.

November is the Month of the Holy Souls; please place the names of your loved ones for our Holy Souls list in the box on the Sanctuary throughout November. Please take a November leaflet to follow the beautiful celebrations we have during this month.

November Leaflet: please take a copy of the November leaflet which outlines the beautiful services which we will be celebrating throughout this Month of the Holy Souls, which takes us right up to the First Sunday of Advent!

Burkina Faso: Our appeal this year has raised the sum £932.14. You will remember the parish, as part of our centenary celebrations in 2008/2009, promised on-going support by holding an appeal annually. Every single penny raised over the last 18 years has gone to help the Bernardine Sisters spread the Gospel in one of the most poorest countries in the world. So thank you for your continued and generous support.

The Food Bank: Contributions are most welcome, and still most necessary. Please bring stuff to Masses or the Presbytery any time.

SJSP Ukulele Orchestra: still strumming away at St. Peter's at 7pm on Monday evenings, and everyone welcome.

October 28th is the Feast of the Apostles Saints Simon and Jude. The Apostle Simon was known as the 'zealot', possibly belong to a Jewish party said to be 'zealous of the Law', and is said to have preached in Egypt. Saint Jude, also known as Thaddeus, was his companion, and wrote one of the New Testament Pastoral Letters, and preached in Mesopotamia. Tradition tells us that together they travelled to Persia where they were both martyred. Saint Jude is a friend to many as Patron Saint of Hopeless Cases, especially with regard to the sick
